

Professional Development Series

*Do you deliver or present ideas, concepts or training?
Do you want to get paid to speak?*

The Professional Development Series is recommended training for any business owners, managers or speakers who wish to improve their skills

10 Reasons why you need to participate:

1. If you have to speak to businesses, your team or clients, the presentation and performance skills learnt are invaluable.
2. If you are a trainer then all the elements can help improve your skills, presentation and business skills.
3. To learn about service marketing.
4. To find out how to develop your product.
5. To learn the best ways to create digital products.
6. To grow your network.
7. To improve your marketing.
8. To improve your business skills.
9. To develop your presentation skills.
10. To collaborate with Chapter Presidents, Professional Speakers, and other successful presenters, speakers and business people.

This 8 part series consists of:

Topic development
Sales and Marketing
Professional Awareness
Professional Relationships
Presenting and Performing
Platform Mechanics
Managing the Business
Authorship and Product
Development

If you wish to be empowered and enthusiastic about your speaking then completing the PDS (Professional Development Series) is a must!"

The structure of the series, the great presenters and practical, relevant and inspiring content make it a must.

I also found the relationships we built amongst those attending to be of lasting value.
